Youtravel promises 'more flexibility'

01 Jun 2010

Youtravel.com founder, John Kent, says the company will be 'more flexible and responsive to market needs' after securing new funding.

Kent, who is chief executive, and a member of the Abu Dhabi royal family, His Highness Sheikh Tahnoon Bin Saeed Al Nahayan, have become the major stakeholders in the company, after buying the shares of Barclays Bank plc.

Other shareholders include managing director, Graham Nichols; finance director, Haris Stavrinoudakis; sales and marketing director, Paul Riches and chairman, Niels Andersen.

Operationally, the business will not change and will maintain its current growth plans and evolution, said Kent.

Despite the unprecedented disruption caused by the ash cloud, youtravel.com is well on track to meet its revenue target of €120m and a substantial profit expectation for 2010.

Kent said: 'After a long and successful partnership with Barclays involving several businesses over the last ten years, I am now entering a new phase of development with youtravel.com where we will be even more flexible and responsive to market needs.'
